

Bart Miller, Jr.

Commissioner District 4

Bart Miller Jr., has been a resident of Spalding County for over 65 years. He graduated from Griffin High School in 1964.

During his early years, he worked for Southern Fruit Distributors. In 1966, he was drafted by the United States Army, where he served a tour in the Vietnam War. After his tour of duty was complete, he returned to Spalding County and continued work at Southern Fruit Distributors until they sold out in 1988.

For most of his life, Bart, has lived in the northern part of Spalding County. In 1989, he relocated to his current address on Williamson Road where he enjoys row crop farming. To further show his love for his community and the people who live here, Bart took a part-time job with the Spalding County Parks & Recreation Department. Eager to get the job done, the part-time job turned into a full time position. Bart held this job for nearly 19 years until his retirement in 2009.

At present, Bart is known for farming cattle and row cropping.

Bart has two daughters; Tammy Wicks (BB&T Business Services Assistant) and Amy Coe (Futral Road Elementary Teacher) he has four grandchildren and three great grandchildren.

Bart was elected to serve the 4th District as Commissioner in 2012.

	Contact Commissioner Miller: 3259 Williamson Road Williamson, Georgia 30223 (770) 228-6896 (Home) (770) 467-4233 (Office) bmiller@spaldingcounty.com
--	---