

FUGITIVE APPREHENSION
DIVISION COMMANDER
Major Keith Duncan

Major Keith Duncan is a Spalding County native. He began his career with the Spalding County Sheriff's Office in 1986 as a Detention Officer. After spending a year working in Detention, he was transferred to the Uniform Patrol Division and attended the Clayton County Regional Police Academy.

While serving in Uniform Patrol, Duncan was promoted to the rank of Sergeant. During this time, he attended various training classes and received his Supervision Certificate from the Peace Officers Standards and Training Council.

Major Duncan was transferred to the Fugitive Apprehension Unit in 2001, where he rose through the ranks and was promoted to Captain in 2007. Major Duncan continues to serve in the Fugitive Apprehension Unit as Division Commander. Duncan supervises thirteen sworn officers, including the Court Services Unit, as well as three Administrative Support staff.
