

Michelle Irizarry

Assistant County Manager

Michelle Irizarry has recently located to Spalding County to assume the office of Assistant County Manager, a position she assumed in December of 2018.

Ms. Irizarry has 17 years of government experience in Property Tax, Accounting, Budget Preparation, Community Development, GDOT, MARTA, ARC, grant administration and Public Management. Her government experience combined with her Human Resources skills, Financial Management knowledge, Economic Development and Public Engagement skills give her a good basis for this position.

Ms. Irizarry came into this position from the City of Statham where she served as the City Administrator. In that position, Ms. Irizarry was responsible for the daily management of the City, she supervised the Police, Public Works, Water/Sewer, Finance and Building Departments. Additionally, she managed Human Resources, Tax and Utility Billings, administered their Economic Development program, conducted elections and represented the City, Mayor and Council at public functions.

Ms. Irizarry received her Bachelor of Science Degree in Business Management from Shorter University in Rome Georgia and graduated with honors in 2008 and is currently an active member in the Griffin Kiwanis Club.

Ms. Irizarry and her husband, Mike, reside in Griffin with two of their children, Cassity who is attending Gordon State University and Destiny who attends school in Spalding County. Her son, Anthony, currently attends Gwinnett Technical College and resides in Lawrenceville. Her daughter, Brittany, is currently attending school at the University of North Georgia, resides in Auburn and is scheduled to graduate in 2021.