

Clay Davis III

Commissioner District 5

Commissioner Clay Davis was appointed by GA Governor Kemp to be the temporary Commissioner for District 5.

Davis is a retired Army Veteran who proudly served his country for 25 years, including Viet Nam. He has called Griffin, Georgia his home for the past 12 years. He has lived all over the world; 10 different states, 3 tours at the Pentagon and included 29 moves. After his retirement from the Army, he worked for Department of Army until his move to Griffin in 2009.

Davis is Vice Chairman of WellStar Spalding Hospital Board; as well as Vice-Chairman of the Spalding County Water Authority. Davis also sits on UGA-Spalding Archway Executive Committee.

Davis is very active in his community as well. He currently serves as Chairman of the Clubs and Activities committee and has been past chairman of the Architectural as well as the Property and Grounds Committee.

Davis is married to his college sweetheart (and she still is) for 53 years. He has two adult children and 5 grandchildren.

Davis is very honored to be able to serve all the Spalding residents.
