Notice of Precinct Change for Precinct 10 – Carver Road Fire Station to Oak Hill Baptist Church

Effective immediately, voters assigned to Precinct 10 – Carver Rd. Fire Station and who desire to cast their vote on Election Day, will now cast their vote at the newly assigned Polling Precinct, Oak Hill Baptist Church, 100 Lakeside Rd., Williamson, GA 30292(The new Precinct is located in Spalding County). The polling location has been approved to meet all the needs of Election Day voters of Precinct 10 and will provide an increase in security and space for additional voting equipment. This polling location change will allow our office to provide a better experience for both the Voters and Poll Workers of Precinct 10. All voters of Precinct 10 will be notified of this change via USPS mail and this change is permanent until further notification by the Office of the Board of Elections and Voter Registration.

For questions or concerns, please phone the Spalding County Office of Elections and Voter Registration at 770-467-4245.
